BUILD your own COLD CHAIN SOLUTION

Delivery of perishable products to the home and workplace are becoming more and more commonplace. Recipe boxes, fresh meat and seafood, pre-prepared meals, drinks, pharmaceutical products and even medical supplies are all modern conveniences that require temperature control to not only avoid spoiling during transit, but to ensure they arrive fresh and ready for use or consumption.

Quality, tailored cold chain solutions are essential in the modern marketplace where convenience is key and customers demand flexibility with delivery times.

Sancell offer a range of gel packs, ice packs, insulating metpoly bags and robust Chilltainers which can be mixed and matched to create a solution for your particular product, delivery and timing requirements.

Robust Chilltainers® are "Recyclable, Thermal, Durable, Affordable and Sustainable" Perfectly suited for use with Sancell Metpoly Bags and Gel & Ice Packs
